

Royds Hall Community School de-amalgamation meeting. Held at Beech Primary on Monday, 4th November with John McNally, Rebecca Hesmondhalgh and Andrew Quinn at 3.00pm.

Attended by:

Parent 1 (children in Reception and Y4)

Parent 2 (children in Y4 and Y7 at Royds).

Both parents were very positive about the de-amalgamation process, in particular how the school would be better funded. They were pleased with the Royds Hall Admission Policy and were very positive about the changes to leadership which have meant that Beech has a Head of School and Assistant Headteachers.

Royds Hall Community School de-amalgamation meeting. Held at Luck Lane Primary on Monday, 4th November with John McNally, Rebecca Hesmondhalgh and Jo Jenkinson at 4.30pm.

Present:

3 parents and 1 grandparent

3 children

After a brief summary of what de-amalgamation entails from JPM, parents asked the following:

Q: What will the block funding be spent on?

A: JJ/RH answered that the funding spend will be considered after the School Improvement Plans are finalised.

Q. Will the uniform change?

A: JJ discussed uniform consultation and the option to stay the same with an enhanced option for shirt and tie for Y5/6.

Q: Will staff be affected by more change when it happens?

A: JPM explained that the schools operating on single sites will bring more stability in terms of staffing.

Other unrelated issues brought up were car parking, extra-curricular activities and gifted and talented provision.

All attendees were thanked for attending and they left satisfied their questions had been answered.

Royds Hall Community School de-amalgamation meeting. Held at Luck Lane Primary on Friday, 8th November with John McNally, Rebecca Hesmondhalgh and Jo Jenkinson at 8.30am.

Two parents attended Luck Lane and were positive about the proposal, particularly in terms of funding and an individualised approach for each school. They welcomed a head of school in each primary, access to more funds and welcomed specific staff in each school, whilst working across the cluster. All questions and feedback was positive and they welcomed the opportunity to talk to senior leaders.

Royds Hall Community School de-amalgamation meeting. Held at Royds Hall Secondary on Tuesday, 12th November with John McNally and Emily Devane at 5pm.

No attendees.