“

My time at SHARE MAT began in the third year of my teaching career as a teacher of science at Shelley College. Following further success as Assistant Head of Science and then Head of Science, I was also made an extended member of the senior leadership.

As SHARE MAT has developed, the opportunities for career progression available to ambitious education professionals have grown.

SHARE MAT has invested in me as a person and a professional and has given me the opportunities and the support I needed to fulfil my potential in education.”
